

A word from your Pastor...

Charlotte "Lottie" Digges Moon (1840-1912) was a Southern Baptist missionary who dedicated nearly 40 years to sharing the Gospel in China. Born in Virginia, Lottie experienced a life-changing conversion in her teens. Feeling called to missions; she became one of the first Southern Baptist women to pursue higher education. In 1873, she sailed to China, immersing herself in the culture and language to better minister to women and children. A tireless advocate for missions, Lottie frequently wrote to Southern Baptist churches, urging them to pray, give, and send missionaries. Her sacrifice tremendously giving her food to others during famine—eventually cost her health and life. Her legacy inspired the annual Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, first organized by the Women's Missionary Union in 1888, which supports global missions to this day.

The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering is vital for advancing the Gospel through the International Mission Board (IMB). Every dollar goes directly to supporting missionaries as they plant churches, translate Bibles, offer medical aid, and train leaders among unreached people groups. Our church's goal is $3,500, and with your prayers and gifts, we can make a global impact for Christ.
